WV Lobbyist Registration Statement Information and Instructions

(Do not return any forms by fax or email. Original signatures are required.)

Use this WV Lobbyist Registration Statement (form LRS-1) for calendar years 2015–2016. Your registration, when approved, will last through the end of 2016 unless terminated in writing prior to that time. Lobbyists are required to re-register by January of each odd numbered year.

Registration requirements:

Registration may be done by mail or in person at the WV Ethics Commission office, 210 Brooks St, Suite 300, Charleston WV 25301. Forms submitted by facsimile transmission or email will not be processed.

You may not lobby until your registration with the WV Ethics Commission is complete and all of the following items are submitted.

1. A completed Lobbyist Registration Statement along with credit card information or a check payable to the WV Ethics Commission in the amount of $100.00 for lobbyist registration fee.

2. A recent 2" x 2" passport-size color photograph of yourself, suitable for publication in a Directory of Registered Lobbyists published annually and for use in creating the Lobbyist Identification badge issued upon registration. The photo may be submitted electronically to kimberly.p.pickens@wv.gov.

3. A completed Employer Representation/Authorization form for each employer identified on the Lobbyist Registration Statement. A registration fee of $100.00 is required for each representation in addition to the $100.00 base lobbyist registration fee.

Incomplete applications will be returned and lobbying privileges delayed.

Training Requirement:

All lobbyists must undergo training at least once per registration cycle. Lobbyists registering in West Virginia for the first time must complete initial training prior to lobbying by completing written materials provided by the Ethics Commission and then attending a formal training class provided by the Ethics Commission within 90 days of registering as a lobbyist. On-line training is available for lobbyists who are unable to attend training classes in person. Contact the Ethics Commission's Lobbyist Registrar for more information on training requirements.

Reporting of Activities and Expenditures:

The Lobbyist must report lobbying activities and expenditures three times a year as follows.

May 15 - covers the months of January, February, March, April

September 15 - covers the months of May, June, July, August

January 15 - covers the months of September, October, November, December

-All due dates are strictly enforced and fines of $10.00 per business day levied for late filing. (Maximum $250)

-Reporting via facsimile or email is not permitted. Please notify the Ethics Commission promptly of any email or mailing address changes or corrections. All forms and reports are available on the Ethics Commission website at www.ethics.wv.gov.

Changes in Status:

Lobbyists must report any changes of lobbying status within one week. You must file an Amended Lobbyist Registration Statement to add or delete an employer or make other changes in registration status. If you wish to terminate your registration as a lobbyist, file a Lobbyist Termination notice within one week of your status change.

All forms for reports, changes and additions may be obtained by contacting the WV Ethics Commission and are available on-line on the Commission's website at www.ethics.wv.gov. For more information call (304)558-0664 or contact Lobbyist Registrar Kimberly P. Pickens at kimberly.p.pickens@wv.gov.
